

Eagle Scout Merit Badge and Rank Confirmation Work Sheet

THIS WORK SHEET MUST BE SUBMITTED WITH YOUR EAGLE SCOUT APPLICATION!

Congratulations on completing all the requirements for the rank of Eagle Scout. Before you fill out your Eagle Scout Application, you need to go over the dates for each rank and merit badge to make sure everything is in the correct order. It is required that you follow these guidelines and use this work sheet.

- 1 It is recommended that your unit leader request your advancement record
- 2 When filling out your worksheet, you will need to consult with your Scoutmaster and/or Troop Advancement Committee Member if you encounter any of the following problems:
 - a. There are differences in dates for rank or merit badges.
 - b. Required merit badges are not earned within the required time frame for a specific rank.
 - c. You do not have the required number of merit badges for a specific rank.
 - d. Missing merit badges - Council has no record of that merit badge on your official advancement record.
 - e. There must be at least 4 months between First Class and Star and at least 6 months between Star and Life rank.
- 3 You can use the official Boy Scouts of America Eagle application or you can request an electronic Eagle application from the Eagle Scout Coordinator.
- 4 It is highly recommended that your workbook, all pictures and paperwork be enclosed in a notebook or portfolio for ease of handling and presentation.
- 5 This work sheet is part of the Eagle Scout Workbook and must be submitted with your service project and final Eagle Application.
- 6 This work sheet will be used in evaluating and confirming your requirements for Eagle Scout.
- 7 If you have any questions about your advancement records or need assistance, please call the Council Service Center and speak with:

Karen A. Neiley, Council Registrar at 607-796-0699
